Introduction

Andrew Carwood

Welcome to the 1997 Edington Festival of Music within the Liturgy.

This year's theme is centred around the poetry of George Herbert (1593-1633). Herbert was born of a distinguished family and educated at Westminster School and Trinity College, Cambridge. He was subsequently elected to a fellowship and then a readership and served as a member of Parliament for two years. On 5 March 1629 he was married to Jane Danvers in Edington Priory and became rector of Bemerton in 1630: it was apparently during the last years of his life that almost all of his English poems were composed. There is a small statue of George Herbert in the reredos of the Chancel Altar at Edington which has been used for the front cover of the Companion. His carefully arranged collection of poems called The Temple was published posthumously in 1633 and had a profound influence on many of his contemporaries. In the same way that music can be used to raise the soul, so these poems are in one sense also an attempt to lift the mind. They are a set of prayers and devotions, a sort of private liturgy not based on canonical hours of the day but rather on personal need.

Throughout the week some of these poems will form the basis of our reflections. Starting on Monday with the realization of our mortal state, weak and dependent on Christ (Perseverance), then on Tuesday the longing and self-searching that we need to experience (The Search) which leads to our joy at the discovery of Christ (The Clasp of Hands). Thursday's sequence of music and readings concentrates on our redemption (Jesu) and the juxtaposition of this service with the Requiem on Friday evening serves to remind us of our own mortality but more importantly of the new life through Christ's sacrifice (Life). The celebration of the Eucharist is central to the Festival, and Saturday is devoted to a consideration of that action (The Banquet) whilst Sunday takes The Church-Floor as its poem, partly so that we can leave with a strong remembrance of the place but also so that the strength and confidence of the text, those virtues which we need to find at Edington, can be taken away with us.

As usual there is a wide range of music throughout the week. Masses by Palestrina, Alonso Lobo, Mozart and Lennox Berkeley and anthems and motets too numerous to mention. There are a number of hymns and anthems which use poetry by George Herbert and Saturday's Evensong is devoted to music by Herbert's contemporary Orlando Gibbons. Before each Compline there will be a motet written by composers active at the court of Emperor Ferdinand II of Hapsburg.

There is a tendency that Festival commissions have their first performance and then disappear from our music lists, so we are repeating Ruth Byrchmore's In manus tuas from last year and I am delighted that John Streeting is contributing a Nunc dimittis as this year's commission as well as his excellent set of Responses. On Wednesday there will be a new hymn from Paul Wigmore and John Barnard. This collaboration has been a feature in recent years and I am anxious that we should not take it for granted. New music is so important to a growing and living liturgy and we are indebted to John and Paul not only for the high standard of their work but also for the luxury of having them 'on site', and for the imaginative way in which they respond to the themes of the Festival and the atmosphere of the week.

It was with great sadness that we learned of the death of Nicholas Hinton earlier this year. He was the second director of the Festival and maintained a keen interest in Edington in spite of the demands of his vital work. On Friday afternoon at 2.00pm, Nicholas's ashes will be interred in the churchyard. In the evening a Requiem Mass will be celebrated at which Victoria's monumental Missa pro defunctis will be sung by the Nave Choir (ordinary) and the Consort (proprs). The Schola represents the pain we feel at our loss together with the thanks for such a rich life with the Dies irae at the start of the service and a Te Deum at the end. Our thoughts and prayers go to Deborah and the family.

My thanks as always to Patrick Elwood and Janet McMullin for their administrative help and support, to John Barnard, Adrian Hutton, Christine Laslett, Gilbert Green, Jeremy Moore and John d'Arcy, David Trendell, Jeremy Summerly, Peter McCrystal, Peter Barley, Julian Thomas and to all the host families in the village and surrounding areas.

EDINGTON MUSIC FESTIVAL: The First Forty Years

Our 40th anniversary booklet is on sale again this year. It sells for £3.00 and gives a history of the Festival through the names of all previous participants, the Masses performed over the years, and extracts from the forewords of the Directors. If you have not yet got your copy please support the Festival by buying one.

Festival & General Information

Festival Finances

The Festival is financed almost entirely by voluntary donations from visitors and the participants themselves, who pay to come. Any profit made at the Festival is either given to the Parish towards the enormous cost of maintaining such a large church in a small community, or put towards future Festival costs — so please be as generous as you can in the collections.

Clergy

The Festival clergy will be delighted to make time for individual conversations with members of the congregation. Please contact them after any of the services.

Voluntaries & Rehearsals

If you have to leave during a voluntary, please do so quietly as they are intended to be part of the service.

If you are taking your seat prior to a service whilst choirs are still practising in the Church, we would be obliged if you could keep noise level to a minimum as this can be extremely distracting to the musicians.

Acknowledgements

The Festival extends its thanks to David Belcher, Patricia Didcock and Gilbert Green, to all the people of Edington, especially those who have provided accommodation for Festival participants. Acknowledgement is also due to parents and to the Organists of Llandaff Cathedral; Magdalen College, Oxford; New College, Oxford; Salisbury Cathedral; Southwark Cathedral; Winchester College, and Wells Cathedral for allowing boys to take part in the Festival. The Festival is much obliged to Hampstead Parish Church, St Peter's Church, Eaton Square, London, St Mary's Church, Warwick, and Edington Priory for the use of robes.

Finally, the Festival has available the services of Dr H H Ronn who acts as Festival doctor. Dr Ronn is located at Parsonage Farm, Edington, telephone (01380) 830846. The Festival is grateful to Dr Ronn for his assistance.

Car Parking

Car Parking is provided within the Church car park and on the verge opposite Monastery Gardens, which will be signposted during the week. The Festival regrets that it cannot accept responsibility for the security of parked cars and advises visitors to place possessions in a locked boot.

Village Facilities

Edington has one public house which is located at the Tinhead end of the village, the Lamb Inn. Full meals are served there daily, and a special menu is in place during Festival week. Meals are also available at The Duke Inn at Bratton, which is one mile to the west, towards Westbury, and at the Longs Arms at Steeple Ashton, approximately three miles to the north of the Church, towards Trowbridge.

Snacks and light refreshments: Light lunches and refreshments will be available in the marquee located between the Church and Ashlington House — access from the Church car park. Teas will be available on Wednesday afternoon. Local produce will also be on sale.

Lavatories: There are no public lavatories near the Church. However, various families have offered the use of their facilities: these include the Pinsons at Ashlington House on Inmead, the Bennetts at Jessamine Cottage on Lower Road and the Douglasses at The Grange, also on Inmead. For further details please consult the notice in the Church Porch.

Village Events

Edington Art & Craft Sale: This sale will be held in the Methodist Chapel Hall, Salisbury Hollow, Tinhead, Edington, from Thursday, 21 August to Saturday, 23 August inclusive, 1.00pm-5.00pm daily. All visitors to the Festival are most welcome. Tinhead may be reached by returning to the main B3098 from the Church and driving for a quarter of a mile to the east (signposted Devizes).

The Society of Friends of Edington Priory Church

Jesu

Jesu is in my heart, his sacred name
 Is deeply carved there: but th' other week
 A great affliction broke the little frame,
 Ev'n all to pieces: which I went to seek:
 And first I found the corner, where was J,
 After, where ES, and next where U was graved.
 When I had got these parcels, instantly
 I sat me down to spell them, and perceived
 That to my broken heart he was I ease you,
 And to my whole is JESU.

I made a posy, while the day ran by;
 Here will I smell my remnant out, and tie

 By noon most cunningly did steal away,
 And withered in my hand.

Sunday

Jesu, salvator seculi . . . verbum — (i) O Jesus, Saviour of mankind, Word of the Father most high, light from light invisible keeping endless watch over your people. (ii) Creator of all time who set the passing hours in their order, renew our bodies, weary with toil, with the quiet rest of the night. (iii) That, while within this burdensome body we must remain however short a stay, our flesh may take such rest as keeps the mind awake in Christ (iv) We here beseech you on our knees to free us from the enemy, lest he should prove strong to lead astray those whom you have redeemed with your blood (v) We pray you, Author of all things, in this joyful time from every threat of death defend your people here (vi) Glory to you, Lord, who have risen from among the dead, with the Father and the Holy Spirit for endless ages. Amen.

In manus tuas — Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit. Redeem us, Lord of truth. Glory be to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Salve regina — Hail, Queen, mother of pity; our life, our sweetness and hope, hail. To thee we cry, the exiled sons of Eve. To thee we sigh, lamenting and weeping in this vale of tears. Therefore, our advocate, turn thy pitiful eyes upon us. And show us, after this exile., Jesus, the blessed fruit of thy womb. O merciful, O holy, O sweet Virgin Mary.

Monday

Alleluia. Dulce lignum — Alleluia. Sweet the wood, sweet the nails, sweeter the load that hangs thereon; to bear up the King and Lord of heaven.

Verba mea auribus percipe— Psalm 5

Ave verum corpus — Jesu, word of God incarnate.
Of the virgin Mary born
On the cross Thy sacred body
For us men with nails was torn.
Cleanse us, by the blood and water
Streaming from Thy pierced side;
Feed us with Thy broken body
Now, and in death's agony
O clement, O sweet Jesu, son of Mary,
Have mercy upon me.
Amen.

Mentor esto servi tui — Psalm 119 vv 49-64

Confitebor tibi, Domine — I will praise you, O Lord, with my whole heart; I will tell all your marvellous works. I will be glad and exult in you; I will sing praise to your name, O most High.

Alma redemptoris mater — Gracious mother of the Redeemer, you who remain the ever-open gate of heaven, and the star of the sea, succour thy people who fall but strive to rise again. You who gave birth, while Nature marvelled, to your Holy Creator, a virgin before and after, who heard that Ave from the mouth of Gabriel, have mercy on sinners.

Tuesday

Alleluia. Beatus vir — Alleluia. Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he hath been proved, he shall receive the crown of life.

Lucis Creator optime — NEH 150

Ecce nunc tempus acceptabile — Behold now is the acceptable time, behold now is the day of salvation; therefore in these days let us show ourselves the ministers of God, in much patience, in fastings, in watchings, in charity unfeigned.

Vigilate! — Keep watch, for you know not when the master of the house shall come: in the evening, or at midnight, or at cock-crow, or in the morning. Keep watch therefore, lest he come suddenly and find you asleep. And what I say to you I say to all: Keep watch.

Domine deduc me — O Lord, lead me in your righteousness because of my enemies; direct my way in your sight. For there is no truth in their mouth; their heart is vain. Their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their lips; judge them, O Lord.

Ave regina caelorum — Hail, Queen of Heaven,
Hail, mistress of the Angels.
Hail, holy root
From whom came light for the world.
Rejoice glorious virgin,
Beautiful above all others.
Hail and farewell, most gracious one,
Plead always with Christ for us.

Wednesday

O Doctor optime — O blest of teachers, light of Holy Church, blessed Bernard, lover of God's law; pray for us to the Son of God.

Sicut cervus — As the hart pants for the fountains of water; so my soul longs for thee, O God. My soul hath thirsted after the living God; when shall I come and appear before my God? My tears have been my bread day and night, whilst it is said to me each day: 'Where is thy God?'

Tantum ergo sacramentum — Let us venerate this great Sacrament with bowed heads; let the ancient example give way to a new rite. Let faith make good the insufficiency of our senses. Praise and rejoicing, safety and honour, virtue and blessing to the Begetter and the Begotten; to him who comes from either be there equal praise. Amen.

Iste confessor Domini— NEH 156

Peccavi super numerum — I have sinned beyond the number of sands of the sea, and my sins have been multiplied, and I am not worthy to see the heights of heaven on account of the multitude of my iniquities. For I have provoked your wrath and have done evil in your sight.

Regina caeli— Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia,
For He whom you were worthy to bear, alleluia,
Has risen as He said, alleluia.
Pray for us to God, alleluia.

Thursday

Alleluia. De quacumque — Alleluia. In whatever tribulation they shall cry to me, I will hear them, and be their protector always.

Tantum ergo sacramentum — as Wednesday

O salutaris hostia — O saving victim, opening wide the gate of heaven to man below, our foes press hard on every side, thine aid supplie, thy strength bestow.

Caligaverunt oculi mei — My eyes became dim with my weeping; for he is far from me that consoled me. See all ye people, if there be sorrow like my sorrow.

Tristia et anxietas — Sorrow and anxiety have taken hold of my inmost being. My heart is made sorrowful in grief, and mine eyes are darkened. Woe is me, for I have sinned! But thou, O Lord, who foresakest not those who hope in thee, comfort and help me for thy name's sake, and have mercy upon me.

Recessit pastor noster — Our shepherd, the fount of the living water is gone, at whose passing the sun was darkened. For he is taken, who took captive the first man; today our Saviour burst open the gates and the bolts of death. He destroyed the prisons of hell, and overthrew the might of the devil. For he is taken, who took captive the first man.

Warum ist das Licht gegeben — Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the bitter in soul, which long for death, but it cometh not, and dig for it more than for hidden treasures, which rejoice exceedingly and are glad when they can find the grave? Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, and whom God hath hedged in?

(Job 3: 20-23)

Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.

(Lamentations 3: 41)

Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

(James 5: 11)

In peace and joy I pass away according to God's will; my heart and soul are comforted, calm and still. As God has promised me, death for me is turned to sleep.

(Martin Luther)

Exultate Deo — Sing we merrily unto God our strength: make a cheerful noise unto the God of Jacob. Take the psalm, bring hither the tabret, the merry harp with the lute. Blow up the trumpet in the new moon: even in the time appointed, and upon our solemn feast day.

Deus, qui pro redemptione mundi — God who for the redemption of the world was willing to be fastened to the Cross with nails, was willing to be lifted up on the Cross, was willing to be slaughtered among thieves, was willing to drink the vinegar and the gall, was willing to be wounded with a spear, free me from the pains of hell; and by [your] merits, lead through the place where you lead the thief crucified with you.

Salve regina — as Sunday

Friday

Dies irae, dies ilia — NEH 524

Requiem aeternam — Grant them eternal rest, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them. A hymn becometh thee, O God, in Zion, and a vow shall be paid to thee in Jerusalem. Hear my prayer; to thee all flesh shall come.

Domine Jesu Christe — O Lord Jesus Christ, King of glory, deliver the souls of the dead from the pains of hell, from the deep lake, from the mouth of the lion; let not Tartarus swallow them, nor let them fall into darkness. Rather bid holy Michael, thy standard bearer, to bring them forth into glorious light. Prayers and sacrifices to thee, Lord, we offer, do thou receive them on behalf of those souls whom we this day commemorate. Grant, Lord, that they pass from death to life, as thou didst promise to Abraham and to his seed.

Audivi vocem de caelo — I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me: Write, from henceforth blessed are the dead which die in the Lord; for they rest from their labours.

Versa est in luctum — My harp has turned to mourning and my music into the voice of those that weep. Spare me, Lord, for my days are nothing.

Alma redemptoris mater — as Monday

Saturday

Gustate et videte — Taste and see that the Lord is gracious. You will suck the milk of the people and feed from the breasts of kings, and know that I the Lord am your Saviour and your strong Redeemer. The bread of Christ is plentiful and it will provide delicacies for kings. Bread from heaven you set before them, having in itself all sweetness. The Lord has fed us with the goodness of the whet and satisfied us with honey from the rock. Come eat my bread and drink the wine which I have prepared for you, and drink your fill, dearest friends.

O sacrum convivium — O, holy feast in which Christ's body is consumed. We recall the memory of his passion, our minds filled with thanks, and we are given a taste of future glory.

Hei mihi Domine — Woe is me, O Lord, for I have sinned exceedingly in my life. What will I, wretched, do? Where will I seek refuge? Only with Thee, my God. Have pity on me until you come on the Last Day

Verbum supernum prodiens — NEH 269

Salve tremendum — Hail, in all its majesty, the fearful head of Jesus Christ, our Saviour, for us he crowned with thorns and flogged with a whip. Hail, most kind eyes of our Lord Jesus Christ, for us filled with tears. Hail entire body of our Lord Jesus Christ, for us hung on the Cross, wounded, dead and buried.

Ave regina caelorum — as Tuesday

Sunday

Aeterne rerum conditor — (i) Eternal founder of the world, who rulest day and night, and grantest changes of season to comfort our weariness. (ii) The herald of day calls out, ever-vigilant through the depths of night — a light for travellers in the darkness, separating night from night. (iii) Raised by Him, the sun frees heaven from shadow; the whole company of wondering spirits abandon their ways of harm. (iv) Glory be to Thee, O Christ, most merciful King and to the Father, with the Holy Ghost, the Comforter, for endless ages. Amen.

Vos qui reliquistis me — You who have abandoned everything and followed me will receive an hundredfold, and will possess eternal life.

Ubi Caritas et amor — Where charity and love are, there is God. The love of Christ has brought us together into one flock. Let us rejoice and let us be glad in that love itself. Let us fear and love the living God and let us love from a pure heart. Amen.

Ave Maria — Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb. Amen.
